SHIP ARRESTED.COM

ANTWERP…

....the Rubens' city par excellence, the world diamond centre, a city of fashion designers and fashion trendsetters, a world port and City-on-the-River, a bustling Burgundian city, a real shoppers' paradise, a gallery of protected monuments and cityscapes, a welcoming and multicultural metropolis with a convivial and chockfull of atmosphere ... and of course a lot more.

...city by the water.

Antwerp owes its very existence and its prosperity to the River Scheldt. Over the centuries the city and the port have expanded into a maritime metropolis. The Port of Antwerp is the second largest port in Europe, one of the ten largest ports worldwide and also the most productive. A dense network of rivers and canals, road and railways ensures an easy connection to the European hinterland. Today the Antwerp Port covers the area north of the city and stretches out over some 13,500 ha.
